Section 1 Introduction

1.1 OUR VISION

Maranatha Christian Reformed Church participates in God's great mission in the world - the redemption of His whole creation:

- Our worship services enable people of all ages, genders, backgrounds and abilities to glorify God while being motivated and equipped for His service;
- We intentionally reach out to our immediate community with a special emphasis on refugees and immigrants;
- Our ministries foster fellowship and discipleship, encourage growth and accountability, and help members discover and use the fruits and gifts the Holy Spirit has entrusted to them.

1.2 PURPOSE OF THIS HANDBOOK

To identify and explain the procedures to be used by Council, its committees and the ministry leaders.

1.3 USE AND UPDATING OF THIS HANDBOOK

- A. This Handbook is on our website. The Administrative Director is responsible for ensuring that it is kept up to date as changes are made by Council.
- B. It is the duty of all office-bearers to be fully acquainted with its contents. Part of the first Council meeting in September is to be devoted to doing that.
- D. Deviation from the procedures described in this Handbook requires approval of Council.
- E. Members on committees or functions listed in this Handbook shall receive a copy of their committee's or function's policies or procedures.

Section 2 Council

2.1 CHURCH GOVERNMENT AND MUTUAL CENSURE

Christian Reformed Churches have embraced the Presbyterian form of church government which is described in our Church Order. Highlights of the Presbyterian form of government:

1. All authority belongs to Jesus Christ. He alone is to be obeyed.
2. Jesus rules his church with the “Word”.
3. In exercising this rule Jesus makes use of men and women for the welfare of the congregation.
4. Those in office exercise the supervision and care of the church not individually but corporately, as Council or Consistory (elders) of the church.
5. The authority is spiritual in nature. It seeks to serve in Christ’s name.
6. All the work must aim at the glory of God, subject to the Word, and stir members to greater faith and love and obedience.
7. The church through delegated representatives cooperates in broader assemblies to uphold the Gospel, maintain unity and promote Christ’s cause and kingdom in the world.

Those provisions come to expression in our church order Article 29: Decisions of ecclesiastical assemblies shall be reached only upon due consideration. The decisions of the assemblies shall be considered settled and binding, unless it is proven that they conflict with the Word of God or the Church Order. Whatever the majority decides becomes binding for all. However, decisions should be arrived at with as much unanimity as possible and when conclusions have been reached, they should be considered settled.

Congregational meetings shall be conducted by the Council and only those matters which it presents shall be considered. The Council through these meetings informs, consults and submits matters to the vote of the church. Proposals presented to the meeting by Council cannot be radically altered by motions from the floor. The president or chairperson of Council brings forward the proposals of Council on behalf of all Council members who by common consent are duty bound to bring the proposals as a united body to the meeting and defend and clarify that proposal when called upon to do so. Office bearers attend the meeting as office bearers and not as members. They exercise their duty as leaders and as a consequence no office bearer can speak or vote against a proposal of Council, but may use their office to inform members why Council has taken a certain action or made that particular proposal (for instance the budget).

As we have accepted that our Reformed churches are Presbyterian in government, this means that office bearers are equal in authority and have no supervisor but Christ as the head of the church. As a result of this form of government the churches established the practice of mutual supervision. Office bearers and churches supervise each other. Article 36 of the Church Order states: The Council, at least four times a year, shall exercise mutual censure (Censura Morum) in which office-bearers assess and encourage each other in the performance of their official duties. This is intended to be a rich experience of candid conversation and evaluation in which elders and deacons together ask themselves:

- How are we doing?
- What are we doing that we should continue doing?
- What are we not doing that we might consider doing?

- What are we doing that we should decrease, or stop?

In the church of Jesus, accountability is always in season!

2.2 NOMINATION AND ELECTION PROCEDURES (of elders and deacons)

- A. Elders and deacons are urged, during the season, to consider potential candidates for office bearers.
- B. Two weeks prior to the Council meeting in March the congregation will be invited to submit to Council names of members whom they consider qualified to be nominated as elder or deacon.
- C. At the March meeting time will be devoted to discuss the qualities needed for a member of the church to be seriously considered for the office of elder and deacon.
- D. A list of nominees shall be established, including from congregational input, by a separate motion for each nominee, which should be made by the district elder of the prospective nominee.
- E. Nominees must be limited to:
 - 1. Those clearly familiar with God's Word and with the Church Order.
 - 2. Those who, in good conscience, can sign the Covenant for Office bearers and answer the questions asked of them in the form of installation in the affirmative.
 - 3. Those who have been out of office for at least two years unless special circumstances prevail.
 - 4. Those who do not have a spouse serving on Council.
- F. The district elders will inform nominees that their names have been placed on the nomination list for office bearers before the names are published in the bulletin. No name may be removed from the nomination list unless lawful objections are received.
- G. Council reserves the right to over-rule any person's objections to his/her nomination and to remove any name from the list if deemed wise. Final nominees need not be informed again of their nomination.
- H. Council will call a congregational meeting, ordinarily on a Sunday in May following the morning service, for the purpose of voting. The Chair of Council or in his absence another Council member will introduce the nominees and give the necessary instructions.
- I. The Executive will appoint a ballot-counting committee to count the ballots and report to the Executive immediately after the counting is completed.
- J. Nominees will be considered elected from the candidates with the highest number of votes and each elected nominee must have received a majority vote.

2.10 SAFE CHURCH POLICY

Article 63 of the Church Order says it well: Each church shall minister to its children and youth—and to the children and youth in the community who participate—by nurturing their personal faith and trust in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, by nurturing their faithful participation in the Lord’s Supper, by preparing them to profess their faith publicly, and by equipping them to assume their Christian responsibilities in the church and in the world. This nurturing ministry shall include receiving them in love, praying for them, instructing them in the faith, and encouraging and sustaining them in the fellowship of believers.

Our Safe Church policy is very long and detailed. It cannot be shared with other churches. The policy is on our website and is accessible only to members of Maranatha CRC who have the password.

Therefore, we include in this Handbook only some excerpts from the introduction:

- A. We believe it is the responsibility of Maranatha CRC to provide a safe environment for children, youth and vulnerable adults who are in attendance at Maranatha’s facilities or who participate in Maranatha-sanctioned activities and programs wherever they may be carried out.
- B. We recognize that we are a reflection of God’s love to those in our care and we take our responsibility seriously. Micah 6:8 presents this challenge: He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Micah suggests that the Lord requires three things of us:
 - a. To act justly – we must work for justice, seeking to promote the truth and speak out on behalf of the vulnerable.
 - b. To love mercy – compassion needs to be the bedrock of all our work.
 - c. To walk humbly with our God – every area of our lives needs to be marked by humility, righteousness and integrity.

- C. We recognize that providing a safe place for children, youth and vulnerable adults is also a legal requirement. We have a legal responsibility to ensure that a plan for protecting children, youth and vulnerable adults is in place and is diligently followed. Our legal responsibility includes being accountable for the actions of our employees and volunteers, that as a church we could be held vicariously liable for their actions. This policy and the guidelines contained within it are to help us in fulfilling our responsibilities to provide as safe and nurturing environment as possible for children, youth and vulnerable adults. In partnership with parents, we, as a church, seek to provide quality care and instruction to families and in this way, promote spiritual growth at every age level.

- B. The first priority is to sponsor Christian families. The committee identifies individuals or families and, following Council approval, helps them prepare their applications which are submitted to the Federal Government via the Refugee Office at World Renew.
- C. When the sponsored individual or family arrives in Canada the committee assists with housing, furniture, clothing, groceries, etc. The committee also assists with obtaining documents such as a SIN number, an AHC number, bank accounts, doctors, and school registration.
- D. The church is legally responsible for refugees for one year after they arrive in Canada. During that time and afterward assistance is given as needed. The church membership is encouraged to help financially and in other practical ways.

7.7 SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The social committee is comprised of four active members who organize and arrange various social events for the congregation. Volunteers are called upon to assist when necessary. The committee helps our church family to grow closer together by enjoying Christian fellowship.

Duties:

- A. Organize events as requested by Council and other committees such as cake-servings, potlucks, bike trips, baby showers, Bible study lunches, Sinterklaas and the church campout.
- B. Propose and organize new activities and events that involve as many members as possible.

Section 8 Guidelines and Procedures

8.1 WORSHIP SERVICES

- A. Our worship services are held each Sunday at 10:30 am and 6:30 pm.
- B. Special services on special days are held at times decided by Council. These include services on New Year's Day, Ascension Day, Thanksgiving Day, Good Friday, Christmas and New Year's Eve.
- C. A praise book may be used in conjunction with the Psalter Hymnal and Lift Up Your Hearts.
- D. The Pastor and worship committee should encourage other members to participate in a variety of ways during the worship services.
- E. See Worship Committee (section 7.1) for more details on our worship services.

8.2 LORD'S SUPPER PROCEDURES

Church Order Article 59a: All baptized members who come with age- and ability-appropriate faith in Jesus Christ are welcome to the Lord's Supper and called to obey the scriptural commands about participation in an age- and ability appropriate way under the supervision of the elders.

- A. The Lord's Supper is celebrated on the fourth Sunday of every month except for December and the Easter month. eleven times a year: seven times during morning services and four times during evening services. The Lord's Supper is celebrated during the Good Friday service.
- B. The elders who are to serve the elements of the Lord's Supper are appointed by the Clerk of Council and the schedule will be posted on the Council's bulletin board the Sunday prior to the celebration of the Lord's Supper.
- C. Elders will serve as greeters prior to the service and inform visitors that we will be celebrating the Lord's Supper and that all baptized Christians are welcome to participate, including children.
- D. All baptized and confessing members are invited to participate in the Lord's Supper. Baptized members under the age of 18 who have not yet professed their faith are invited under the auspices of their parents.
- E. Preparatory forms or other means to remind the congregation that the Lord's Supper will be celebrated the following Sunday, shall be used the week prior to every Lord's Supper.

8.3 INFANT AND ADULT BAPTISM PROCEDURES

- A. The minister and/or district elder shall visit the parents of a new-born child in order to discuss and arrange for the child's baptism.

In certain cases it is incumbent on the minister to obtain the approval of Consistory before making arrangements for the baptism of children of the congregation, e.g. when the parents have been unfaithful in church attendance, or have failed to provide support for the work of the church even though they are able, or when they have generally failed to exhibit a Christian walk of life.

- B. Parents of children to be baptized should make themselves familiar with the baptism form of their choice.
- C. Parents of children to be baptized are asked to arrive in the Council room at least ten minutes prior to the service. The elder of service will lead in prayer and usher the parents into the church auditorium at the same time as the office-bearers. The Pastor will present the parents with a Certificate of Baptism after baptism.
- D. After the service the Pastor, elders and deacons will congratulate the parents after which the congregation will have the opportunity to do the same.
- E. Children who are adopted into a believing home may be baptized when requested by the parents, even if the final adoption papers have not yet arrived. Each case is to be considered on its own merits and approval must be given by the Elders.
- F. Adults who have not been baptized shall receive holy baptism upon public profession of faith. The form for the Baptism of Adults shall be used for such public professions (Article 57 of the Church Order).

8.4 PROFESSION OF FAITH PROCEDURES

- A. Anyone wishing to make public profession of faith must obtain approval from Council. This approval is based upon the recommendation made by the district elder and another Council member following an interview used to determine why the individual wants to make profession of faith and how well the individual understands the meaning of this decision. A guideline is available for conducting the interview (section 8.5). Instruction in the doctrine of the Christian Reformed Church should precede profession of faith.
- B. Profession of faith must be made using a form approved by Synod.
- C. A memento, in the form of a Bible or a book of daily devotions, shall be given to those who make public profession of their faith

8.5 PROFESSION OF FAITH INTERVIEW GUIDE

Church Order Article 59b: Baptized members shall be encouraged to make a public profession of faith with the use of a prescribed form in a public worship service. This public profession of faith includes a commitment to the creeds and confessions of the Christian Reformed Church. Before their profession of faith, they shall give an appropriate testimony of their faith, life, and doctrine to the elders. The names of those who will make a public profession of faith shall be announced to the congregation for approval at least one Sunday before their profession takes place. Upon their public profession of faith, they shall be designated as "confessing members".

As interviewers of candidates for profession of faith, we must seek to do the Lord's will. The interview, therefore, must be spiritual in character and must aim at assuring the interviewer that candidates are aware of their motivations for confessing their faith, that they have a faith to confess and that it is the Christian faith, and that they are seriously intent on living by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, with the gracious help of God and in the context of the fellowship of the Lord's people. The interviewer should begin and end the interview with prayer. Following are a series of suggested questions:

A. Motive:

1. Why do you want to be a Christian? Why do you want to publicly profess your faith?
2. Do you yourself think that you are ready to profess your faith? How do you know?
3. Are you aware of the Spirit's leading you to do it?
4. Are you glad that you have been baptized? And do you see a connection between your baptism and your profession of faith?

B. Doctrine:

1. The word "gospel" means "good news". What's so good about the Gospel of Jesus Christ?
2. You say that Jesus is your Saviour. What does he save you from? And how does he do that? And why does he do it?
3. Would you say that you feel ready to profess your faith, that you are a sinner or a saint? Or, are you perhaps both?
4. Can you as a Christian live apart from the church? Why do we need the fellowship of fellow believers?
5. What importance does the preaching of the Word have for you? Do you like to go to the worship services?
6. What do you think of the Christian Reformed Church? Are you happy to be a member of it? What is there about it that attracts you to it?
7. Do you have any reservations about the teachings of the Christian Reformed Church? What do you think of its creeds?
8. Does it matter to you to which church you belong?
9. Why is the death of Jesus so important?

C. Life:

1. What does it mean to you to say that Jesus is your Lord?
2. Why is the resurrection and ascension of Christ so important?
3. Are you happy to be a Christian? What makes you happy? Could you die happily as well as live happily?
4. How do you go about seeking fellowship with the Lord Jesus? Do you practice daily reading of the Bible and prayer?
5. You say that you want to serve the Lord. How are you going to do that? I mean, how do you determine the Lord's will for your life?
6. What do you understand by "church discipline"? Is it a threat to you or is it a comfort?
7. How will you seek to determine your financial contributions to the church? Will you also use the budget envelopes?
8. Will you attend the worship services and congregational meetings on a regular basis?
9. Will you be willing to serve in church activities? Will you volunteer?
10. What spiritual gift do you have that you think could be of benefit for the common good of the church?
11. Will you seek to support all kingdom causes with prayer, moral support and involvement whenever possible?
12. Do you consciously seek to be one of the Lord's witnesses? How do you do that?
13. Can you honestly answer affirmatively the questions of the Form for the Public Profession of Faith?

8.6 MARRIAGE GUIDELINES

- A. The Council shall take steps in their Pastoral work (family visiting, preaching and teaching) to remind the congregation of the scriptural command to marry "only in the Lord" (1 Cor. 7:39). Christians may never marry one who is merely "nice" or who merely comes from a "good family," but are commanded to marry only one who is a fellow believer in the Lord Jesus Christ and is responsibly committed to the establishment of a distinctively Christian home. Failure to obey this command can only lead to misery later on and will break down the communal life of God's people (cf. also 11 Corinthians 6:14-15; Ephesians 5:21-33). Article 69 of the Church Order reads:
- Consistories shall instruct and admonish those under their spiritual care to marry only in the Lord.
 - Christian marriages should be solemnized with appropriate admonitions, promises and prayers as provided for in the official form. Marriages may be solemnized either in a worship service, or in private gatherings of relatives and friends.
 - Ministers shall not solemnize marriages which would be in conflict with the Word of God.
- B. Couples contemplating marriage in Maranatha CRC. shall ordinarily give four months' notice of their intentions to the church Council (via the Clerk or the Pastor). The Pastor who is to officiate at the wedding ceremony will be responsible for conducting marriage counselling to assist the couple to plan the marriage ceremony and to prepare themselves for the establishment of a distinctively Christian home, reserving the right to ask the couple to postpone their wedding if he feels that they are not yet ready for it. For marriage not only concerns the well-being of a husband and wife, but also the quality of our church life. Hence, the church must have time to be convinced that the marriage is being entered into according to the Word of God. Only then can the church, in good conscience, cooperate in the solemnization of the marriage.

1. Upon such notice of intention, the Council shall appoint two elders to visit with the couple in order to evaluate the couple's commitment to the establishment of a Christian home.
 2. Should a couple, one of whom is not a member of the CRC, or a couple which has not yet publicly professed their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, desire to be married in Maranatha CRC, two elders, one of whom is the district elder, shall interview the couple on the issues of "marrying in the Lord" and "confessing Christ as Lord and Saviour" in order to determine the couple's sincerity and readiness to establish a Christian home. The couple shall be encouraged to profess their faith before they marry. The Council reserves the right to refuse permission to be married in the Maranatha CRC.
- C. The couple to be married should expect to be introduced to the congregation on the Sunday prior to their wedding ceremony, and the congregation shall be encouraged to attend the wedding and to share in the joy of the couple. Marriage ceremonies ought to be integrated into the life of the congregation and ought to be considered as gatherings of the church (cf. I Cor. 12:12-26).
- D. Couples shall have the choice of a marriage in a weekday service, but may also consider being married during a Sunday worship service. If the marriage is to take place during the week, the couple shall be encouraged to earnestly invite all the members of the congregation. Preaching of the Word of God should be part of the wedding ceremony. The district elder is expected to attend the wedding in his/her official capacity.
- E. Couples, as well as their families, shall be encouraged to have celebrations that are distinctively Christian in character. Alcoholic beverages should be served, if at all, only in moderation.

8.7 MARRIAGE PROCEDURES

- A. Couples wishing to have a church wedding should notify the Pastor or Clerk of Council at least four months prior to the intended wedding date.
- B. The Pastor who intends to officiate at the wedding is responsible for the pre-marital counselling necessary to assist the couple in establishing a distinctively Christian home.
- C. Couples contemplating marriage should be urged to enrol in a premarital counselling course sponsored by the Edmonton Christian Reformed Churches or by the Pastor.

- D. The district elder and another office-bearer must meet with the couple to discuss the couple's commitment to establishing a Christian marriage and home and make a recommendation to Council after this visit.
- E. Couples should be introduced to the congregation during the morning service on the Sunday just prior to the wedding.
- F. The district elder assigned to the couple should represent the Council at the wedding.
- G. After the ceremony the couple will be presented, on behalf of the congregation, with a wedding Bible.

8.8 MARRIAGE INTERVIEW GUIDE

Young couples contemplating marriage in the Maranatha CRC are to be interviewed by the district elder (along with one other office-bearer) for the following reasons:

1. To give expression to the belief that marriage is of utmost importance to the health of the Lord's Church because it establishes a home which in turn is the nucleus of society. Where there are healthy marriages there also will be healthy homes, and where you have healthy homes you have a healthy church, and where you have a healthy church you have a healthy society. We have a real interest and concern in marriage therefore and we must do our best to help young couples to build distinctively Christian homes by their marriages.
2. The elders of the church ought to be assured that the marriage being contemplated is indeed a marriage in the Lord and that a believing, godly home is to be established. Hence, by means of these interviews, we may learn about the couple's faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, their commitment to live for the Lord and their awareness of the meaning of a Christian home.
3. That the elders may also become aware of any concern with the couple that may require further attention is also of value to the church Council.

Here follow some suggested questions for such interviews:

A. Marriage Readiness:

1. How long have you known each other? Do you know each other well?
2. Where and how did you meet?
3. Do you believe that the Lord brought you together? How do you know that?
4. Have you prayed together? Have you also prayed about your intended marriage?
5. Why do you want to marry? What motivates you?
6. Do you consider yourselves ready for marriage? Do you see it as a life-long commitment? What does it mean to be "committed"?
7. Do you find it fairly easy and comfortable to talk together about your faith in the Lord?
8. Is it the sincere intention of both of you to build a Christian marriage and a Christian home? What does that mean to you?
9. Have you read over the Marriage Form? Does it reflect the biblical teachings concerning marriage?

B. Marriage and the Church:

1. Why do you want to get married in the church? Do you see it as a "right" or a "privilege"?
2. Do you understand why the church, through its Council, has such an interest and concern in your marriage?
3. Is the church important to both of you? Do you intend to worship together on a regular basis? Why? Or ... why not?
4. Have you professed your faith in the Lord Jesus? If you don't feel ready to do so, then can you honestly say that you are ready to marry?
5. Do you both pray for the church?
6. Has the church found a place in your budget?
7. Can you comfortably discuss the life of the church together?
8. Will you keep the church informed about matters concerning your life? e.g. change of address, sickness or other crises, etc.
9. Will you welcome the elders when they come for family visiting?

C. Marriage and the Home:

1. Do you plan to have regular family devotions? How do you plan to go about it?
2. Will both of you be working outside the home?
3. Do you look forward to having children? How will you make decisions in this regard?
4. Should the Lord bless you with children, will you seek to provide a Christian education for them?
5. Have you involved your parents in your marriage plans? For example, have you consulted with them about your plans?
6. Have you sought to prepare some kind of family budget?
7. What will you do if serious conflicts arise in your marriage? Will you call the Pastor or an elder or deacon when you need help?
8. Do you consciously seek to cultivate friendships within the Christian community? For example, do you participate in a discussion group of any kind? Are your friends also Christians?
9. What significance do you see the Gospel of Jesus Christ to have for your marriage and your home life?

8.9 GUIDELINES FOR FUNERALS: MEMBERS OF MARANATHA

A. There are no fees for the use of church facilities by members of Maranatha.

B. Funerals - guidelines to be followed:

The family will ordinarily arrange with the Pastor to have the funeral in our church building. If that is the case, the Pastor will advise the Administrative Director as soon as possible about the probable day and time of the funeral, the probable arrangement for the funeral and whether lunch/refreshments are likely to be part of the arrangements.

The Pastor will advise the family that the above arrangements need to be confirmed with the custodian. The family will need to contact the church office if the services of a sound/and/or projectionist are required. The church office will also assist in the preparation of the funeral program.

The custodian will arrange for preparation of any refreshments/lunches etc., as discussed with the family and will invoice the family for the expenses.

Note: in connection with this, it's good to keep in mind the three types of funeral services that may take place:

1. Funeral service, with funeral directors' staff present, and refreshments to be served after interment.
2. Funeral service, with funeral directors' staff present, but without use of lower level facilities.
3. Memorial service, after interment, with refreshments to be served afterwards.

C. Members have to make their own arrangement for the services of musicians, sound system operator and minister if our own is not available.

No fees will be charged for the services of the minister, custodian, musicians or sound technician. If there are any expenses associated with the services of any of the above functionaries, the cost will be absorbed by our church capped, however, at the following levels:

Minister (if not our own):	$250.00
Musicians, in total:	$100.00
Sound technician:	$40.00
Projectionist:	$60.00

D. In case there are any differences of opinion as to how the above rules are to be interpreted, the Executive of Council will make the final decision.

8.10 GUIDELINES FOR USE OF CHURCH FACILITIES

Following are guidelines for the use of our church facilities, procedures to be followed with weddings and funerals, the fees associated with the use of the church building and the services of the various functionaries. These guidelines are to be reviewed every third year, beginning in the fall of 2021.

- A. Church-owned equipment, such as tables, chairs or musical instruments, shall not be taken from the church building, unless approval has been obtained from the Finance & Administration Committee or the Chair of Council. Equipment may be used for our own church functions at other locations, e.g. at the Northeast Christian School gym. Arrangements should be confirmed with the church office.
- B. Permission for the use of the church auditorium or meeting rooms in the basement (e.g. reception) must be obtained from the Admin Director. When permission is obtained, the party requesting the use of the facilities must confirm the arrangements with the custodian.

- C. The Church limits the use of the church facilities to church-approved programs and purposes which are consistent with the constating documents of this Church.
- D. Conditions attached to the use of the church building:
 1. No alcoholic beverages will be allowed in the church building, with the exception of wine for a toast at a wedding or reception.
 2. Functions or meetings on Saturdays must end no later than 11:00 pm, to allow time for preparation for Sunday services.
 3. Any group using the church building must see to it that the rooms used are left in good condition or additional charges may apply.
- E. There are no fees for the use of church facilities by members of Maranatha.
- F. In the case of weddings, where at least one of the parties is a member of Maranatha, members will have to make their own arrangements for the services of a minister, musicians and sound system operator. No fees will be charged for the services of the minister and the custodian, while members are responsible for any fees associated with the services of musicians, sound system operator and outside minister.
- G. Fees for the use of facilities to non-members are set as follows:

Church auditorium:	$275.00
Lower level and kitchen:	$275.00
Church auditorium plus lower level and kitchen:	$400.00

The custodian will receive $100.00 out of the above fees as compensation for extra work. Where the services of the minister, organist or sound system operator are required, (funerals, weddings, etc.) the following fees are applicable:

Minister:	$250.00
Musicians:	$100.00
Sound technician:	$40.00 – Funeral $60.00 – Wedding
Projectionist:	$40.00 – Funeral $80.00 – Wedding
- H. In case there are any differences of opinion as to how the above rules are to be interpreted, the Executive of Council will make the final decision.

8.11 BUDGET FORMATION

- A. The Finance and Administration Committee is responsible for preparing the annual budget of the church. All budgetary concerns or changes must be evaluated by this committee. The Finance and Administration Committee has the responsibility for making the proposed budget available to the members of Council at least one Sunday prior to the November Council meeting.
- B. The F & A Committee is responsible for initiating salary proposals for the minister and the custodian. In the case of the custodian the committee will consider economic factors and remuneration for similar work. In the case of the Pastor, the committee will consider economic factors, synodical guidelines and the range of salaries for ministers of the Christian Reformed Churches in Edmonton and elsewhere. At least one elder will visit with the Pastor and his wife to discuss the recommendations.

- C. The Council discusses and adopts the proposed budget, with amendments if required.
- D. The Clerk prepares copies of the proposed budget on behalf of the Council for each family of the congregation, to be distributed at least one Sunday prior to the congregational meeting.
- E. The Treasurer is responsible for explaining and the Chair of Council for defending the proposed budget at the congregational meeting.
- F. The congregation votes on the proposed budget after discussion. No amendments are allowed, as the whole budget is presented to the congregation for approval. In case the budget is not accepted by majority vote, it will go back to Council for reconsideration.
- G. Before the Council may make a decision concerning non-budgeted financial items, the matter must be referred to the Finance and Administration Committee for comment.
- H. Council has committed the congregation to the budgeted 100% for Classical and Synodical ministry shares. Deviation from this rule must be approved by Council.
- I. In order to make payment as required in the budget, and there is a shortage of funds, a line of credit might be established with the bank if required, providing the congregation is immediately notified of such action.

8.12 EMERGENCY EVACUATION GUIDELINES

In the Event a fire occurs during a worship service the following rules and regulations will apply:

- 1) A person sitting closest to the South wing door will head for the kitchen and notify the Fire Department immediately. A request will be made from the pulpit for an orderly evacuation. In addition any person with a cell phone should attempt a 9-1-1 call.
- 2) The Church address is posted at the phone location.
- 3) Elders, Deacons and Hall Monitor, regardless of where they sit are designated as "WARDENS" to maintain order at specific exits.
- 4) Persons in charge of children in both the nursery and Sunday school rooms shall be responsible for evacuating the children via the nearest usable exit.
- 5) The WARDENS are to stand by the exterior exits and are to assist in the evacuation on the outside. Should the window exits be needed the WARDENS will proceed to assist as needed on either side of the window.
- 6) The congregation will leave via the nearest and safest usable exit. The WARDENS will assist to determine which exits are the most suitable.

- 7) Leave all your belongings behind. Do not attempt to retrieve any item that is not on your person.
- 8) The Physically Handicapped will be carried out by the nearest able bodied person in the vicinity. If needed the WARDENS shall designate an able bodied person.
- 9) Use of the elevator is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.
- 10) WARDENS will conduct a final sweep thru the auditorium and basement as needed.
- 11) WARDENS should be familiar with the location of fire extinguishers should the need arise.
- 12) A WARDEN shall assume control outside and assemble everybody in the designated muster point determined as the northwest corner of the parking lot near the fence.

A copy of these guidelines and evacuation diagram shall be posted at each normal exit and at each doorway in the basement. One copy shall remain on the pulpit.

8.13 FAMILY VISITING GUIDE

Introduction

Family visiting on an annual basis is required by the Church Order of the Christian Reformed Church. Article 65: The office-bearers of the church shall extend Pastoral care to all members of the congregation and to others whenever possible. Home visitation and other methods, such as spiritual mentorship and personal contact, shall be used to encourage them to live by faith, restore those who err in doctrine or life, and comfort and assist those experiencing adversity. The practice is not explicitly required by any passage of scripture, but nevertheless the following passages certainly speak of annual family visiting. Every elder should be thoroughly familiar with these passages: Ephesians 4:11-14; 1 Peter 5:1-5; John 15:1-17; Hebrews 13:17; Matthew 13:1-9 and 18-23; I Thessalonians 5: 12-22 (especially 14).

Elders do not have the right to visit in believers' homes for the purpose of family visiting just because they are an elder! It does have a bearing, however, since it is ultimately Jesus Christ who appoints the elders and they must do the work in the name of Christ in obedience to him as their SENDER. Elders are appointed by the Spirit of the Lord who led the congregation to choose these men to be their elders (overseers) because they were recognized as the best qualified among the congregation for the task of tending the flock of God.

But the elders' authority lies in the fact that they bring the Word of God to the members of the church. The Word of God, from which and on the basis of which they speak, gives them the authority to enter the homes of God's people to ask questions concerning their lives and to discuss the issues of faith and love with them. The elders' task is to encourage, comfort and warn as may be required, but to do so only with the Word of God as the power and authority by which we are called to holy, righteous and wise living before the Lord. Hence, the elders must seek to become more and more familiar with the Word of God, and to live by that Word in their own lives in order to reflect by both word and way of life the authority of God's Word that drives believers toward a godly way of life. Elders ought to be able to refer to the Bible during the course of the visit or at its end in such a way that the Word of God speaks directly to the family in their own particular situation and to their needs. Official preaching in a worship service is general: it is addressed to the whole congregation. Family visiting is specific: it is addressed to the individual family in terms of their individual needs and concerns.

At times elders will find that believers will be rather "cool" or even openly hostile, angry or offensive toward them or toward the church. It often happens when you lay the demands of God's Word before those who are living disobediently or indifferently before the Lord. Whenever that happens, remember your SENDER! Whenever you speak to fellow believers in the name of Christ, driven by the Word, then the people to whom you speak will be reacting to your SENDER and not personally toward you. If they respond in loving faith, we rejoice, because they are responding to the Lord in that way; if they respond with hostility, they do so toward Jesus Christ and we may feel sad and hurt by it but we will feel that way because the name of Jesus Christ is hurt. We as elders must remember that we are only servants and are always in the background; Jesus Christ is the Master and He is always in the foreground!

The Mechanics

Our Reformed heritage has left us with a traditional image of the family visit that makes us think of it as very "official" and "formal" and "tense". Many make remarks about these visits as if they were something that has to be done and endured but are not really worthwhile or meaningful. We do need to work at becoming more informal and flexible in order to make the visits pleasant and helpful. We need to remember that there is room for humor! Nor should the visits all follow the same pattern but there ought to be variety depending on the mood, atmosphere and needs of the family. We should feel free to go off on a tangent that may at the moment seem to be totally irrelevant to the nature of family visiting, providing we make sure that the discussion comes back to the real issues of life before the Lord and our life in relationship to each other and the world.

Elders should know the members of their district well. First-time elders will perhaps feel uncomfortable because they do not know the families in their district. And the families in turn may not be very eager to open to a new and strange elder with whom they are unfamiliar. In such cases, it is highly advisable, almost necessary, that the elders make "social get-acquainted calls". They could invite the families over for coffee or invite themselves to the home for the same purpose for a relaxed, informal, social visit. Then the family visit, to be made later on, will ordinarily be easier, more open and more profitable.

Elders ought to do the most difficult visits first! There is always the tendency to postpone the more difficult visits because they are not expected to be pleasant with the result that we run out of time to make the visits or at least to make repeat visits. That's why there are many of these who complain (rightly so!) that they tend to be forgotten. Doing the more difficult visits first gives room to deal more effectively with such families and more importantly gives time for repeat visits as well as furnish the elders an opportunity to consult as to how to give help and support dealing with the family in the future.

Making appointments can be difficult. We ought to phone well ahead of time and if the first suggested date does not satisfy, then we ought immediately to try to find another suitable date even it is two, three or four weeks in advance. And it is good to remember that the best time to phone seems to be around supper time (5:30-7:00 pm.).

Whether an elder goes alone or with another elder should be left to the discretion of the district elder. There are some visits that can best be made alone and then more visits can be made. However, there is good reason to try to make your visits as a team of two elders (or perhaps with the district deacon). You will then receive greater support (after all, two heads are better than one, they say); there will also be a greater attempt on your part to work harder at making the visit profitable; there will be less likelihood that the discussion remains with the weather and the prices of gasoline and sugar, etc. It just seems that family visiting works better when there are two elders.

Reading the Bible and prayer for the family during or at the end of the visit is of utmost importance obviously. However, we need to be flexible in this respect. To begin a family visit with a selection from Scripture and prayer gives the impression of formality and stiffness as if a meeting were being conducted for business purposes. It is better to begin the visit in a casual way and to seek to set a relaxing tone first. The elder should seek to maintain control of the discussion, however, and it must be steered in the direction of talking of those matters that concern the family's relationship to the Lord, to each other, to the body of Christ and to other people. During such discussions, the elder should seek to refer to the Bible to enforce whatever the elder may be trying to accomplish with that family. And, the elder should not leave the family, if at all possible, without reading a passage that speaks to the family's needs and asking the family to join with him in prayer for them.

Elders must always be ready to listen! The family visit is not an "investigation". It is a visit to build up, to instruct, to encourage and strengthen in faith, to admonish and warn or rebuke, as the need may be. But the elder needs to LISTEN! This is especially true with young people: the elder may ask questions, but then listen. And we must listen not only to what the people may SAY, but try to ascertain what they MEAN. What makes them say that which they have just said? What lies behind the scenes in this person's life? What's his/her real concern? When the elder begins to sense something of that, then he is ready to begin making a contribution by giving something that is helpful and which will be appreciated.

Whenever the elder encounters serious difficulties that are not expected, and cannot be sufficiently dealt with at the time, it is not wise to prolong the visit to try to deal with the matter to its conclusion. It is better to make another appointment right away and perhaps also, if you were alone, to ask another elder or the Pastor to accompany you the next time so that the difficulty can be pursued. Such a repeat visit should also be made within two or three weeks.

The Support

Elders need support for they will sometimes cry "HELP" -- not audibly perhaps, but at least inwardly. There are resources by which the elder can become better prepared and more effective, which should not be forgotten. The best help really, however, (and this applies especially to first-time elders) is to do as much family visiting as possible as a team with another, more experienced elder.

Each elder should feel free to discuss a family or a problem with any other elder at any time. Be cautious about talking about families or persons in the church with those who are not elders or deacons; however, every elder is available (and the Pastor too) for mutual advice and support.

With such families that may present difficulties, those who live somewhat "on the fringe of the church's life" and those who may soon become discipline cases, you may want the Pastor to accompany you. The Pastor may be visiting with these families too, on his own, but it is of great value that the Pastor be included in some of the regular family visiting, particularly with such who need special consideration.

There are regular meetings of the elders about once a month for the purpose of hearing and discussing the reports each elder makes concerning the family visits he makes. The purpose of these meetings is three-fold:

1. that all the elders may be made aware of the spiritual atmosphere of all the families and consequently come to "know" the congregation;
2. that elders may have the opportunity to discuss their visits in order to receive advice and help from the other elders;
3. to take specific actions regarding disciplinary situations.

The Visits to be Made

Regular family visits are to be made to each family of the congregation AT LEAST once a year as required by the Church Order. More visits can and ought to be made, however. Particular attention should be paid to the young people of our families because frequently they are not present for the ordinary family visit for one reason or another. If they are not present, a separate visit ought to be made to those individuals to maintain contact. (Note: If you hear of a young person who is not married and is living away from home, please notify the Clerk and the youth elder for Pastoral care. This is important because young people so easily drift away from the fellowship of God's people!)

Attention should also be given to the families in your district in connection with times of crisis or times of thanksgiving. You could take your spouse along with you to visit those who are ill, or who experience the death of a close relative, and those who celebrate important anniversaries. Special attention should also be paid to those who are widows/widowers and the elderly. These visits are often pleasant and can be very casual. Your purpose is only to show interest and love.

Get-acquainted calls should be made as soon as possible when a new member is accepted into the congregation. This visit should include making arrangements for a public welcome during one of the worship services. Moreover, you should seek to acquaint the new member somewhat with the history of our congregation and its activities inviting the new member to participate in these activities (societies, evangelism work, etc.). And further, a directory of the church and a set of envelopes with a copy of the current church budget should also be delivered to the new member on this visit.

Socializing evenings ought also to be arranged by the elders. This is not to replace the annual family visit, but it will go a long way toward building the actual experience of the communion of the saints.

The Reports

Elders are expected to report to the elders' meetings concerning the regular family visits they make. The purpose of such meetings is for all the elders to become aware of the spiritual condition of the church, to help each other by seeking and giving advice, to come to understand the situation of each family, and to take action whenever disciplinary measures are called for.

The reports of family visits should include the date of the visit and the general content of the discussion in order to give an indication of the spiritual health of the family.

Notes concerning the family visit should be written by the elder immediately following the visit. Reports to the elders' meetings can be made quickly, efficiently and profitably by simply reading the notes! Elaboration can always be made during the discussion.

Lines of communication between elders, deacons and Pastor need to be kept open. If there is a change of address, make sure to pass the information along to the Clerk. If a young person becomes married outside the church let the Pastor and Clerk know. If there is a need in a family that would require diaconal work, please let the deacons know.

One last point concerns holding confidences. Gossip hurts the church! It may be that we contribute to that gossip and perhaps even generate it if we are not careful about what we say and to whom. All elders and deacons and Pastors need to guard their mouths! It can be, and often is, beautiful when believers talk about each other in the spirit of loving concern in order to seek ways of helping those in trouble. But let us never talk about others merely for the sake of talking!
